

Homework Year 4

Thursday 1st October 2026

Dear Parents,

As Mrs Entwisle is absent, I have set this week's homework. There is no need to print the worksheets if your child is happy to read from the screen and write the answers straight into their homework book.

Reading: Please remember to read with your child daily and support them with understanding through comprehension of the text and not just decoding. Please sign and date the reading record each time you hear them read. If you have any comments you wish to write about your child's reading, please do so.

Maths: Year 4 are currently looking at securing addition and subtraction skills, leading to practising formal column methods. This week they have focused on mental strategies, regrouping and estimation.

TASK: Complete the worksheets practising 'think 10 and 100'. There is no need to print the worksheet – you can write and draw answers into your homework book. Don't forget to check your answers and mark it when you have finished. This homework is due in on Tuesday 6th October.

English: Year 4 have started a new writing unit practising their persuasive techniques using the book 'The King Who Banned The Dark'

TASK: Now that you have read the story, write a book review of 'The King Who Banned The Dark'. Think about how much you enjoyed the story, why you liked or did not like it and who you would recommend it to – who would its ideal audience be. Write it in your homework book. You can add illustrations if you would like to. This homework is due in on Tuesday 1st October.

Spellings: Year 4 have been practising spellings with the prefix 'il-' (before a root word starting with 'l') and the prefix 'ir-' (before a root word starting with 'r')

This week's spellings are below for you to practise, ready to be tested on Monday.

illegal	irregular
illegible	irrelevant
illogical	irresponsible
illiterate	irrational
illicit	irresistible

Thank you for your continued support.
Mrs Skelton
